

Functional requirements

As this information panel will be available only for the system administrator, all the functionality will be available for him, namely:

- The system administrator can see the schedules of purchases by day and compare among different quarters
- The system administrator can see the percentage of each customer among all customers
- The system administrator can see the sales schedule for each of the products
- The system administrator can see all records with information on them divided into pages
- The system administrator can view a list of all servers and their status
- The system administrator can turn off the server
- my system administrator will turn on the server